

Expectations of PCM 1 Students

The following represents a limited, but not all inclusive, list of expectations for PCM 1 students:

- 1) To achieve what is expected of her/him at all times, and to work up to her/his potential in all PCM activities
- 2) To be prepared, on time, and actively participate in all PCM activities
- 3) To attend all PCM activities, and to sign in only for her or himself when attendance is taken
- 4) To complete all assignments on time, and to the best of her/his abilities
- 5) To not cheat, lie, or falsify information
- 6) To dress appropriately, act professionally, and represent Loyola well at all times
- 7) To treat her/his peers, teachers, course administrators, education specialists, health care professionals, all LUHS and SSOM employees, patients, all she/he contacts as a medical student, and especially her or himself with the utmost respect at all times
- 8) To collaborate with everyone involved in her/his education, including her/his peers to learn how a team functions to care for patients
- 9) To ask for help when needed
- 10) To be open to the ideas of others and to feedback about her/his own performance and progress from all sources
- 11) To accept that we are all human, and all make mistakes and to take responsibility for and learn from mistakes
- 12) To be patient, flexible, and open to unknown or unconsidered possibilities
- 13) To approach all PCM activities in the spirit of wonder, inquisitiveness, learning, self-improvement, gratitude and humility