Honor Code Contract for PCM 1 Facilitators

I, ________________________________, by signing this honor code contract, agree:

1) To create a safe learning environment within the small group
2) To help each student hold him or herself to the PCM student honor code
3) To set standards for and help each student to work to his or her potential
4) To role model collaboration and teamwork
5) To role model the idea of patient centered care in all PCM activities
6) To facilitate learning and growth in all small group members, including myself
7) To be prepared, on time (within reason), and actively facilitate in the small group
8) To dress appropriately, act professionally, and represent Loyola well at all times
9) To treat my peers, other teachers, course administrators, education specialists, health care professionals, all LUHS and SSOM employees, patients, all I contact as a teacher, and especially myself with the utmost respect at all times
10) To ask for help when needed
11) To be open to the ideas of others and to feedback about my own performance and progress from all sources
12) To accept that we are all human, and all make mistakes and to take responsibility for and learn from mistakes
13) To be patient, flexible, and open to unknown or unconsidered possibilities
14) To approach all PCM activities in the spirit of wonder, inquisitiveness, learning, self-improvement, gratitude and humility
