

Student Evaluation: Grading, Attendance Policy, Written Reflection Requirements

This course is graded on a Pass/Fail basis. Students must meet the minimal requirements in each of the following seven required components evaluated in order to successfully pass the course.

1. Attendance

Attend and participate in all PCM-3 sessions. To pass the course, no more than two EXCUSED absences are allowed. A formal request for an absence from any required PCM-3 session must be submitted to the Course Directors and the Office of Student Affairs at least 30 days in advance of the scheduled session. Prior permission from the Student Affairs Deans and Course Directors must be obtained. When permission from the Office of Student Affairs has been granted, students must immediately inform the Course Directors, their facilitators (for small group absences only), and the PCM-3 coordinator, Kelly Larkin (klarkin2@luc.edu), of the excused absence. Absences without prior permission are subject to a required meeting with the Student Affairs Deans. If such absences are deemed unexcused by the Student Affairs Deans, this will result in a professionalism concern and make up assignment. More than two absences, for any reason, even if excused, will result in a failure to complete the course and require repetition of the entire course.

To help students remain in the habit of reflecting, if a small group session is missed, students must write a two-page Reflection Paper describing their recent clerkship rotation experiences. In the event that the student does not yet have clerkship experience, the student should write about any fears, anxieties, etc. in regards to starting a clerkship. The reflection paper must be uploaded in Sakai under the assignments menu tab AND emailed to their facilitators prior to the next PCM3 day. All small groups are held in person unless otherwise notified by Dr. Michelfelder, Dr. Boykin, or Kelly Larkin only. Students with an excused absence, that cannot be present at their reflection small group session, have the option to "Zoom", "Skype" or "FaceTime" into the small group through one of their peer's tablets or smart phones so that they may still participate in the small group experience. This option is only for those students with an excused absence. In this case, the reflection paper is no longer required. Lastly, students are required to view the online video recordings of the lectures missed as well as responsible for the material from any missed sessions.
