

MHD II, Small Group Session VI
Correlative Lecture Objectives:

MHD

List at least three diseases caused by Enteroviruses other than poliovirus and describe the laboratory test used to confirm diagnosis

Describe the route of transmission and diagnostic tests for Hepatitis A virus.

List the most common viral agents responsible for diarrhea.

Describe how rotavirus infection is detected in terms of patient specimen and laboratory detection method.

Pharmacology and Therapeutics

To know the mechanism of action within the central nervous system of major drugs of abuse

To know the signs and symptoms of overdose caused by the major drugs of abuse and appropriate therapeutic interventions.

To examine the mechanisms by which nitrates, betablockers, calcium-channel blockers and ranolazine relieve angina

Correlative topics in First Aid for USMLE I 2011

p.168

p.169

Image 16 p. I-4

p.450

p.242